ANTI-RAGGING ACTIVITIES

2022– 2023

S.V.B. Government Degree College has established an Anti-Ragging Cell with the objective of developing awareness of the menace of Ragging and its implications for their life and career. Another important objective is to curb ragging instances on the campus. The Anti-Ragging Cell consists of faculty nominated by the Principal, non-teaching staff, local police officials, local and student representatives.

Slogans against the evil practice of Ragging are written on the compound wall of the College which is quite visible to all the students of the college and also to the visitors. The Anti-Ragging toll free number is displayed along with the slogans. The principal takes a special care in communicating to the students about the ill effects of Ragging Practice. He sends circulars on the issue to the classrooms at regular intervals. All the girl students are specifically advised to note down the Toll-free number and use it in case of any Ragging incident. The Women Empowerment Cell organizes programmes to raise awareness of the girl students about how to protect themselves and report to the appropriate authorities.

The Anti-Ragging Cell of the College conducted an Awareness Programme on this issue. The Sub Inspector of Police of the local police station was invited as the Chief Guest. The speakers sensitized students about the penal procedures applied according to AP State Anti-Ragging act. The principal advised the students not to indulge in unlawful activities and put their careers at risk. He also advised the students to report any such activities to the In-Charges of their respective departments. He said that they should focus on their studies and engage themselves in cocurricular and extracurricular activities to upgrade their knowledge and skill set.

THE CHOICE IS YOURS
DON'T RAG

Say NO to Ragging

A special Anti-Ragging Cell was established in the college campus to enhance the awareness regarding Anti-Ragging among the student community and to curb ragging in the campus. An active Anti-Ragging committee was constituted by the principal Dr. D. Giri by nominating the teaching, non-teaching members, police, local media and student representatives.

A banner on anti-ragging is erected in the campus in a place which is visible to the entire students that raises an awareness regarding Ragging a social evil with a valuable slogan. The Anti-Ragging toll free number was displayed at the prominent places in the campus and it is communicated to the class rooms in the form of circular regularly. The toll free number is especially well communicated to the girl students of the campus through the women empowerment cell.

An Anti-Ragging awareness programme was conducted by inviting the Sub Inspector of Police and ASI of the local police station. Through this programme the students are sensitized about the penal procedures applied according to AP State Anti-Ragging act. In this programme the AP State Anti-Ragging Act was clearly discussed by the police men. The Principal advised the students not to cut down the problems that will create nuisance in the campus by discussing with the other students and staff members. He also advised the students to concentrate on the academics and non-academic programmes of the campus to enhance their academic status for their bright future.

The staff members of the college are fetching a cordial environment for the student they are trying to reduce the Psychological burdens by providing valuable suggestion. The women empowerment cell is extending a valuable hand to provide courage and mental strength to the girl students of the campus. The staff members are continuing in their classes until the next teacher arrives. The staff members are not providing any chance for any student to make mischievous things in and around the campus.

The NSS, NCC volunteers are supporting in spreading the information regarding these Anti-Ragging activities in the campus regularly among the student community.

The periodical inspection and cross verification of the class room work carried out by the members of Anti-Ragging committee is providing a healthy atmosphere in the campus at this movement our campus is the ragging free campus.

A complaint box is established in the campus to complaint against ragging. The box is opened regularly by the Anti-Ragging ragging committee to communicate to the grievances. Information regarding the complaint box was given to each and every student of the campus in the form of a circular and it was also communicated by the staff members, NSS and NCC volunteers among the students.

We are trying to conduct a programme on personality development–Human values in the campus to enhance the social status of the students regarding their character. As this ragging problem was developed from the student community, we are taking the help of the representatives of various student organizations to curb the ragging in the campus.

It has been announced that the administration of the campus is very serious regarding this issue and the student has to face a severe punishment if there is any negative behavioral change.

An awareness program was conducted on July 22th of 2019 on Anti ragging
